

If the proceeding is pass, hundreds of hard working Americans will be with out a job. Families and lives destroyed. If Americans tried passing bills on everything that annoyed them, then we would no longer see circulars in the news paper, no more commercial breaks during our favorite TV shows, no more hitting red lights or traffic along the way to work. Get my point? Telemarketers work hard for their money, pay taxes, and make the economy a better place.